60's pop meets alt-country with a dash of noise. 3 MP3 Songs in this album (8:34) ! Related styles: POP: Brill Building Pop, ROCK: Rock Roll People who are interested in Feist Lesley Gore Aimee Mann should consider this download. Details: Washington, DC-based Olivia Mancini the Housemates are back to follow up last years This Kind of Life. On The Chatterbox Ep, the band with a taste for 60s pop, rock and soul, gleefully presents more tunes rife with trumpets, handclaps and cheery harmonies. Produced by Roger Greenawalt (Ben Kweller, Rhett Miller), this latest collection lends a wall of sound to Olivias high-spirited songs about late nights, soured friendships, and imperfecting love. The band came together in the spring of 2005 when a group of friends Ed Donohue (guitar), Kristin Forbes (bass, vocals), Randy Scope (drums), and Dan Swenson (trumpet, organ, vocals) agreed to help Olivia (vocals, guitar) put together some songs she had been working on. Naming the group was easy: Most of the musicians were already housemates. The Housemates are no longer housemates, but they still work closely on each others musical projects. Olivia and Randy have been playing together since 2001, when they met to form the rhythm section of the Washington Social Club. Their latest project, Sleeping Secrets, will release their debut album in early 2009 on Kora Records. Olivia and Randy also form the rhythm section of Eds critically acclaimed group, Donny Hue and the Colors. Donny Hue and the Colors will release their second LP in 2009, also on Kora Records.
