Funk Ballads rock its got it all a magnificent debut album have a listen you won't be disappointed... 6 MP3 Songs POP: British Pop, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Formed in Surrey England back in 1991 after the spilt of Ian Stuarts successful touring band Eye To Eye. Ian had a string of songs from an old lyric book just waiting to be recorded, although Stuart is usually a drummer he's also a very fine keyboard player with loads of new songs and ideas plus Karl his own home recording studio, the 3 of them locked themselves away and started to create several songs to go towards an album, in that time they were joined by a brilliant keyboard player Dave Sparrow who helped form some of their early songs their manager at that time Ian Pitwell even put in some backing vocals to the recordings also brought along Chris West from london boy band 'Big Fun' to complete the line up, the band also rehearsed with a lead vocalist Caroline White before Tina came along... That's where it almost ended it took 10 years to get back in the studio (hence the name Decade) Karl now a big time producer to the stars co own's his own professional studio saved some spare time to put the whole project back together again this time with his wife Tina on lead vocals the 4 members of Prime Time produced this magnificent debut album you won't be disappointed it has everything....
