Beautiful collection of instrumental mood music featuring acoustic and classical guitar accompanied by keyboard and percussion. 20 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, ROCK: Acoustic Details: This is the third CD from the artist. It is a beautiful collection of mood pieces cultivated from personal experiences. The liner notes include the inspiration for each song. A couple of examples are: - The Petal Falls In the normal course of events, all loving relationships end in pain - through separation or death; the deeper the love, the deeper the pain. You can choose not to love and avoid the pain or you can choose to love and risk the pain that may eventually result. - Worth Dying For Whenever I begin to lose my self-worth for whatever reason, all I have to remember is that I was worth dying for. The Players Tony Sims - Acoustic steel string and classical guitars, electric guitars, keyboards, percussion Randy Miller - bass Michael Aguilar - drums, congas, percussion Mary Ann Willis - violin on track 4 All songs composed by Tony Sims. Produced by Tony Sims and Randy Miller. Engineered, mixed and mastered by Randy Miller. Recorded in October, November and December 2004 at Eighth Note in Houston, Texas. Special thanks to Randy (as usual) for being my traveling partner on this journey. Photography by Ginny Sims. Graphic layout by Midwest Records.
