Details: If you're looking for the hardest rocking country band around, look no further than 32 Below. With music ranging from Charlie Daniels to Nickelback, these guys keep the crowd rocking all night long. 32 Below hit the ground running in December of 2001 and they see no signs of slowing down. The group is made up of 5 very talented young guys who absolutely love what they do, and it shows onstage. They love to have a good time, and they make sure their audience does too. 32 Below has headlined thier own shows as well as opened for National Acts like Sawyer Brown, Heart, Trick Pony, Montgomery Gentry, Lonestar, Jamie O'Neal, Craig Morgan, Cowboy Troy and Steve Azar. Their debut CD is on constant rotation on the country radio stations in the Upper Midwest and the release of "The Devil In Me" from their second album has taken on a life of its own by being one of the most requested songs in the Minn/Dakota area of 2004. In 2006, 32 Below has released "Kick'n Back" to the airwaves with instant airplay. It is included on thier Live CD/DVD "This One's for the Fans". 32 Below currently resides in Nashville, TN, as one of the Wildhorse Saloon's top bands. As of 2006, 32 Below has sold over a combined 10,000 CD's. So make sure to catch 32 Below when they come to your town, you won't regret it.
