A brilliant blend of acoustic and electric guitars with driving rhythms that take you on a musical journey from the southwest to the Islands of the Mediterranean. 8 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, JAZZ: Latin Jazz Details: Chini and Camberos are a dynamic guitar duo that combine a unique blend of world beats and rhythms to well crafted melodies. Their music takes you on a journey from the deserts of the Southwest to the Isles of the Mediteranian. Robert Chini, a native of Southern California, is a multi-instrumentalist and songwriter who started playing drums at the age of five. Although a drummer, he soon found a passion for the guitar, keyboard, and bass. Robert's talents led him to play bass for the popular eighties group England Dan John Ford Coley. Robert has also written and produced several commercials, one of which won him an Emmy. Jorge Camberos, born in Mazatlan, Mexico, is an exquisite, extraordinare Latin/Jazz guitarist. Jorge began exploring his musical talents at a very early age. After experimenting with a variety of musical instruments he soon discovered a passion for the guitar. Jorge attended the University of Mexico City and later moved to Los Angeles, California. It was during this time when Jorge met and worked with such musicians as Al Mackey (Earth, Wind Fire) and Steve Lukather of Toto. As a consequence he began backing up shows and touring the West Coast, Canada, and Mexico. Upon his return to LA, he graduated from the GIT
