Production Details: Chris Chandler and his six-piece band, The SwingKats, have been invited to perform at the 300-year anniversary celebration in St. Petersburg, Russia, July 22-28, 2003. Born in Savannah, now residing at Tybee Island, Georgia, Chandler has been playing piano and composing since childhood. An ASCAP Award recipient in 2001 for his composition "Piano Roll Rag", Chandler has recorded five CD's and composed hundreds of songs in many musical styles ranging from Ragtime and Ballad to Popular, Country and Rock. The SwingKats, based in Atlanta, play for corporate and private events in the southeast - including Highlands NC, St. Simons GA, Winston-Salem NC, Charlotte NC, Richmond VA, Sea Island GA, Hilton Head SC and in the southwest in Houston and Galveston TX. Locally he can be seen performing Historic Savannah GA at the Mulberry Inn and Suzabelle's Cafe The SwingKats will be performing in St. Petersburg for the first time on July 23. Jumping a midnight express train to Moscow, they play two performances near the Kremlin, and then return to St. Petersburg for the big celebration weekend. The SwingKats will be the featured Jazz Band and perform at the Philharmonic Hall and then, the next day stage an outdoor performance in the square. The band includes one of the best European tenor saxophone players of the 1990's, Nikolai Panov. He has performed in the US, India and Europe as a soloist, composer and arranger. Driving the SwingKats rhythm is the drummer/percussionist Vladimir. A native of St. Petersburg He is a frequent guest artist at the Philharmonic Hall A new Christmas CD, "Christmas All Over the World", including four new original Christmas songs, will be released this Yuletide season. Two of the songs already received radio play time last season in Texas, New York, and overseas in Ireland and Denmark Contact: Chris
