Details: Based out of the Bay Area, House of Nod (music to make you nod your head, as in up and down to a groove or side to side to yes yes yes) was conceived by singer/songwriter/multi-instrumentalist Nate Eastman as a way to escape pigeonholing himself in the "Americana" mindset and bringing in other aspects of modern music that have resonated with him, from the beats of early hip hop and electronica to tasteful synthesizers and tape loops.
