Details: "Hers is equal parts sexual tension, contemporary funk and Latin soul, all filtered into a dance-pop template. It works well for either sweaty dance-club gyrations or some heady moonlit tryst on a sandy Isla Margarita beach...The bilingual lovely sports huge crossover appeal with audiences all colors, and is our pick to rule the American mainstream with hit songs and sellout shows." Metro Times - Detroit A native San Franciscan born to parents from Nicaragua, Lola Morales grew up firmly grounded in both her Latin and American roots. Her music is a direct reflection of this vibrant combination. A unique fusion of of funk, RnB and Latin soul, Lola's sound has been making a huge impact on audiences worldwide. Write My Story is Lola's first full-length album and appropriately entitled, it reads like the pages of a novel filled with telling chapters of love and lust, sorrow and yearning and continued adventures on the the road and on the dance floor. Eclectic and colorful much like the songstress herself, the CD takes you on a journey unveiling the heart and soul of a young artist making her way to the sun. Written in both in English and Spanish, each song was composed while on the road and is inspired by the people and places along the way. You won't want to miss her continued sojourn as she takes her live show on the road and around the globe. Already forging her way while creating a steady following in places like the UK, Asia and America, she will most certainly be in a city near you and her's is a show not to be missed. Rich and melodic vocals over steady and heavy beats, her sensual delivery will send you as you shake and sway to her funk drenched and Latin infused rhythms. Watch out for tour dates and catch her while you can.
