These original compositions fully represent Luis Fiestas's unabashed love affair with his native country: a love that strongly fills the heart and soul of this artist with a noble nature and the brilliance of the Sun. 9 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Contemporary, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: Luis Fiestas, Peruvian brother with a European education for music, has respectable love for Latin American tone and rhythm. The compositions of Luis take the listener on a trip that reminds us of the landscape of the "old culture," and the history of music of the "new world," just a little more than half a millennium after the post-Columbian time. His music, a new music in classical form of interpretation, is not difficult to understand, because in it is always present the taste of popular music and Latin American tone. The Eroica label sincerely desires to support the continuity of the cultural exchange necessary for mankind. Through the mood of "huayno," "milonga" or waltz, interpreted by a traditional string quartet, Luis creates a sincere and respectable proposition that renews our emotions. And he lived in the cities in many cities that were one, in many worlds that were one, in many appearances that were one. And all his fibers of life, as the stars of the firmament, sang, songs.
