Melodic acoustic pop rock. Emotive vocals and lyrics. 6 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Sydney based singer/songwriter Mark Wilkinson has emerged into the live music scene with his refreshing brand of acoustic pop. Marks songwriting is diverse and evocative. His infectious melodies and poetic lyrics are passionately delivered through striking vocals and fluid guitar work. Launching himself onto Sydneys original music scene in early 2005, Mark has played as a solo artist at many of Sydneys top live music venues including The Basement, Hopetoun Hotel and The Marquee. He has also supported established artists such as Sarah McLeod and The Mekons (UK). "Cellophane Life" is Mark's debut release. The first single from the EP is the title track Cellophane Life. The single was chosen in the final 4 of an Australia wide competition called New Artist to Radio (NA2R) run by Commercial Radio Australia. Mark recently performed live at Luna Park as part of the NA2R showcase in front of over 300 commercial radio and industry representatives. Mark Wilkinson is an emerging talent who will grab your attention with his haunting vocals and inspirational songwriting. Watch out for big things from this extraordinary young man.
