Spiritual world music, mixing current rock ,reggae blues,jazz western feels with traditional eastern and indigenous roots, accenting strongly on India sandskrit mantra (NADA YOGA). 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Fusion, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: Narga toured Australia, playing keyboards in the 8 piece band 'Heart'n' Soul' in the late sixties. Shortly after this he moved to India where, while still in his teens, he studied sitar and Indian vocal music. Undergoing training in many yoga and tantric disciplines,specialising in nada (music)yoga under the direct guidance of a number of highly respected Masters, for over 15 years. On returning to Australia he took up guitar and concentrated on the modern concept of songwriting, blending eastern and western feels into an original style. He has currently released his new CD "SATYA-RATED',which has been aimed at bringing mantra into mainstream listening. The CD has received rave reviews and was 'Album of the Week' on Byron Bay's FM and is now receiving airplay on many other stations. The Album is a mix of Rock, Jazz, Reggae, Blues, Latin, Fusion feels with traditional Sanskrit mantra woven throughout the songs, indigenous sounds from nature, with each track having its own animal totem sounds (whales, dolphins, black cockatoos etc.) If you are interested in current spiritual music with ancient roots, truthful lyrics and good grooves, you should get yourself a copy of this masterpiece.
