He has been writing and performing for over a decade and have been mesmerizing the underground scene. He, along with his group The Freeman, has been from church venues, club venues, to out door festivities, and not to mention the local jail system. The quality music that Phlo brings will make any true rap head bob. He carries with him a strong sense of originality, which propels him beyond others who simply choose to mimic. He displays himself as more than a mere artist but as a true brother. Phlo believe that one must not only have the skills but one must have the burden and the heart to reach out to the masses. Phlo is and was, indeed, born for such a time as this. Hip Hop flows thru his veins and the love for the culture inspires him to make a difference within it. His music and his production are beyond the norm, especially in the underground arena. The lyrics within his songs are filled with enlightenment encouragement, something the culture needs badly today. His music has already proven to reach the youth and the older generation, the secular and the religious people alike. When it comes to the Phlo no one is left behind. It is safe to say that Phlo will be a grand asset to the industry. When something is meant to be, nothing could stop it. The talents along with the passion in Phlo, is an unstoppable force that is destined for greatness. He is determining not to just entertain but to deposit something positive and edifying in the culture. And significantly, he chooses to use the good news of the kingdom to get the job done.
