Led by Ruby Dee's honeyfied honky tonk vocals and Jorge Harada's twangy ol' pinky bendin' guitar, Ruby Dee the Snake Handlers is a band not to be missed. Have van, will travel. booking Tel.#206.605.3026 info@rubydeemusic.com rubydeemusic.com BAND bioGRAPHY Singer/Songwriter/Aspiring Guitarist: Ruby Dee, or Dan, as she is affectionately known by the guys in the band, has sung in various punk rock bands in San Francisco and LA- including stints with Mexican Death Holiday (opening for Perry Farrells' fledgling Jane's Addiction) and Vortex, playing with members of the former Dead Boys. She's also written performed with Marc Olsen, formerly of the band Sage, in a little project called Still, has co-written some mighty fine tunes with Seattle honky tonk prince Gerald Collier. GUITAR: Jorge 'Hoss' Harada played in a lot of kick ass bands in LA in his formative years, moved to Germany for a while, and ended up playing in a 3 piece rockabilly act called Drag Strip 77 in Las Vegas for about 5 years. He since moved to Seattle and is happily adding a much needed fine attitude to Ruby Dee the Snake Handlers... DRUMS:Born in a cabbage patch, Lewis Warren has been playing the drums for the Snake Handlers for a year now: creating the fine backbone that is the Snake Handler sound... BASS: Pete Smith has been playing stringed instruments since the age of 10. He's played and recorded a broad variety of styles, from heavy metal to rock to pop to blues and finally, to country. He's mostly self taught but has studied under some Vancouver blues greats as well as the late great jazz bassist Dave Press. RHYTHM GUITAR: Liz Smith is our newest member, a talented gal who plays rhythm guitar as well as singing some fine backing vocals.

She's a pup, but learning new tricks every day..! PEDAL STEEL: Alan Terhune is playing steel on the record, however we rely upon Jorge's fine finger skills to carry us through live buy the album, then come hear us live someday to see what we mean!
