Details: TIERRA, a charming songstress with uniquely mellow husky voice, she went to stay abroad earlier in her life and to polish her sensibilities in various different cultures. After being back in Japan, she recorded Shizuku and Ull be ok, for which she wrote lyrics. On September 30, 2008, TIERRA released 2 albums; her debut single September Rain and the duet single CD with TOSHI; TOSHI DUET 1 Eien ni tabisuru koto, which is a rather unusual simultaneous release as a new artist. "SEPTEMBER RAIN", a sepia colored song dedicated to an ending summer love, produced and composed by MASAYA, was recorded at a L.A. studio with Hollywoods top-call strings musicians. In TOSHI DUET 1 Eien ni tabisuru koto, TIERRA sings with TOSHI, who is a vocalist of a visual kei rock band and also a healing music artist in harmony. The song, as you already may know, is a Japanese version of David Fosters The Prayer with a completely new lyric by MASAYA. "September Rain" was recorded at Firehouse Recording Studio in L.A., U.S.A., with Derek Nakamoto as an arranger and MASAYA as a producer.
