Acoustic Techno/Dance 10 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Healing, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details:

This is the fourth TK Wizard CD. I incorporated a lot of the same production as on the first TK Wizard CD Party At the Castle. This CD is very similar in style as Party At The Castle, but with a bit more instrumentation. On Party At The Castle theres only one electric guitar on the whole CD! By comparison, four songs on By Invitation Only have no electric guitars - only acoustics and synth textures (e.g. horn parts). All TK Wizard albums have varying amounts of rhythms and percussions with By Invitation Only setting the perfect example. From the opening track Welcome with its reggae tinged beat to Energy Encore (a standard disco romp), the CD moves along quite briskly. The tune Chillin slows things down for a needed break and features two classical guitars playing to a slow dance. Once more, a waltz surfaces as the CD closer Good Mourning. (The third TK Wizard CD Willow Ghosts has a waltz called Wizards Waltz.) The tunes Welcome, Goblet Of Passion, Chillin, and Energy Encore have the classic TK Wizard acoustic guitar harmonies while the last also features a acoustic guitar jam near the end. I used the acoustic twelve string guitar quite a bit which you can hear on the tunes Welcome, Open All Night, Mirrors Of Hope and Energy Encore. And, yes, theres plenty of blazing electric guitar solos to spice up the mixes! Lots of horn breaks, some piano and synth solos, and even a jazzy organ solo on Shots Of Nectar. I had a lot of fun recording and mixing this CD. It took quite a bit of work because the songs are long dance mixes and I tried to keep them interesting by adding different parts. Listen, dance, space-out, and enjoy the songs on this CD. I really hope you do. TK Wizard This CD is recorded and mixed digitally on professional equipment. The sonic quality is mastered in true audio fashion with little commercial compression insuring real dynamic range. The music is copied onto CDRs and the jewel cases have no shrink wrap.
