ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Longing, desire, desperation and love are all themes explored in this compelling debut from BMG Music artist, Xandy Barry. His music has been described as a unique blend of the dark and electronic textures of Depeche Mode with the unbridled energy of Nirvana. Lyrically, "All The Money In The World" is a tour de force of images and details, encapsulating the journey of an artist from the darkened depths of despair to the hope for emotional salvation. Born in Tallahassee Florida, Xandy Barry has spent much of his life in other cities and countries including New York, Amsterdam, Berlin, Ireland and Italy, where he worked as a freelance writer, and studied music. After the breakup of his New York band, Kilowatt, Xandy decided to pursue a career as a solo artist. His talents as a programmer, guitar player, pianist and singer lend themselves to his truly unique sound and caught the attention of executives at BMG Music. 2004 brought Xandy to Los Angeles to work with celebrated producer Wally Gagel (Muse, Folk Implosion, Old 97's, eels, Rolling Stones...). Xandy recently completed the filming of a video for "The Only God" with director Scott Benzel. "All The Money In The World" is scheduled to be released in the first half of 2005.
