The bestselling guide updated to meet the renewed public interest in bonds. This new edition of The Bond Book will attract the legions of investors fleeing the stock market in search of safer ground. The financial crisis of 2008 caused major disruptions to every sector of the bond market, but Treasuries have since experienced major rallies. This edition will discuss the lessons of the crisis, as well as the risks and opportunities it created. Providing the most up-to-date information available for making the best bond investing decisions, this third edition explains how to assess risks and opportunities in this sector, buy treasuries without paying a commission, decide whether to purchase bond funds or individual bonds, and choose among the various high-yield savings bonds now available.
