

The Merry Widow - Koko Brown

Victorian England is a man's world. And no one knows this better than Phillipa Jones who must fight society's conventions along with chauvinistic ship captains and a greedy yet undeniably handsome Viscount to keep her late husband's shipping business afloat. Unfortunately, one moment of weakness and a case of mistaken identities will place her in a compromising position, which will see everything she's worked for come to ruins including her reputation. TO MY READER: This is Koko's first attempt at writing an historical erotic romance and hopefully I've allowed you to escape the doldrums of everyday life with my slice of fiction. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Ever since she was a child, Koko Brown has had a love for the written word. So much so, she decided to publish her own newspaper at the tender age of nine. Turning a tidy profit from the very first issue, the publication was quickly put out of business by KoKo's grade school principal, who didn't appreciate outside competition. Undaunted, Koko has never strayed too far from her "passion", whether it was writing for her college's literary magazine, bringing some "liveliness" to her local newspaper's obituary page, writing web page content to attract visitors to Florida's beautiful Space Coast or even trying her hand at erotic fiction. When not writing, this Florida native likes spending time with family and friends, riding her Yamaha 650 Classic, surfing the internet, traveling to exotic locales, thrift store shopping and having great conversations.
