Colonel Mitchell's face paled as he looked into the briefcase the President had just opened before him. "Colonel, I believe that device you're looking at is a key, not only to our national security but also, to the survival of humanity as we know it. You have carte blanche to assemble the best team you can to discover the alien secrets contained in there. Time is critical. To avoid world-wide panic, secrecy is of utmost importance. Do you understand?" Twenty-seven-year-old Wendy Ahearn is a brilliant, world-renowned linguist. Her passion for music is surpassed only by her love of teaching linguistics of the Ancient Middle East. Dr. Corey Newton is the leading expert in the United States on quantum gravity. Since graduating from MIT only three years ago, he has enjoyed his position as lead scientist for GraviDyne, an astrophysics think tank. The two scientists are joined in an ABOVE TOP SECRET project under the direction of Colonel Pete Mitchell. Located in a secret military base buried within a mountain, the team is charged by special order of the President to decode an Alien artifact. Besides the President and the dying general who discovered it, the two members of Pete's team are the only people on this planet who know of the artifact's existence, at least, that's what everyone believes.
