A lonely, disgruntled adventurer named Doc Cowles and his associate Stan Samuels encounter a prophetic woman while exploring the Egyptian ruins of Giza. Cowles and Samuels are enthralled by her captivating persona as they follow her through the embattled Middle East, and eventually to the United States. Within days they are joined by four others and as a team they journey across the country, struggling with their troubled pasts and their ominous futures. The mysterious woman calling herself Ankh has many secrets and possesses unusual powers far beyond the travelers' grasps of reality. There are more questions than answers when they are in her company, and they eventually realize she is more than just a charismatic friend--she is their only hope for survival.
