Wouldn't you love to build a successful plr business? Of course you would want your own personal plr atm business! Top marketers make money everyday the easy way selling plr. To be successful, though, you need to know what's hot. Here is a chepa report that will make your money pack with just one sold plr pack. Here is a sample of what it inside. " PLR What is a Niche? Chances are you already know what plr is, so it shouldn't be necessary to explain other than briefly. Just in case though, here is the short version. Plr is content you can buy or sell. Plr content is usually sold in packs around a topic. This content would need to be changed slightly though, if you are wanted to have unique content. Google loves fresh content so plr is always needed. But what about knowing which topics to write about? Simply put when you write about the hot topics you put more money in your wallet. It's not just the hot topics that are good investments of your time though. Niche topics are going to be a large source of a plr provider's income. Niche topics are ones that are very narrow in the subject. Dogs are such a big subject that they wouldn't be a niche topic. Let's pick one part of dogs, say dog training. Now dog training would be a niche, you can even break it down even further and say training dogs not to bark can be your niche. Knowing what a niche is will help you decide on plr topics." "How to find hot topics for plr Do your research for one. Before deciding on a plr topic, realize time is money. If you waste your time floundering without a little research you waste potential money you could have earned. Once you have done your research decide on topics you personally know a lot about. Personally I find that if I know about a topic I can do a pack of plr in a day. If I don't know the topic extremely well I spend the day researching and then writing. Remembering time is money I want to focus my efforts on where I can make the biggest bang for my buck, if you will."
