Without all "BIG" talk Audio Imagery is a group of friends that love to make music. During the moments when we are not working we toss on anything ranging from Prince to Michael Jackson, from Phil Collins to Outkast, from Gnarlz Barkley to George Clinton and blast it out the car as though it was a new hit by 50

Cent. Our appreciation for good music has allowed us to create a range of music not yet explored - We put the fun into music and put the music into Hip Hop. Now for the "BIG" talk Audio Imagery (A.I.) is one of the most recognized unsigned Hip Hop groups in PA. A.I. is headed by three emcees - Agress (aka J-Boogs), Cos, and LP - each bringing their own regional influence to the group - Philly, VA, Jamaica respectively. This diversity gives the music and live performance a refreshing sound that is unparalleled.

First breaking into the college scene in early 2004, A.I. has performed with the likes of Fall out Boy, Rusted Root, Ill Nino, Oleander, Sponge, The X-Ecutioners, Freeway, Bowling for Soup, Black Thought, Zion I, Rupee, Ness, Clipse, Blackalicious; and the list goes on... Currently A.I. is promoting their new album, HUSH with multiple songs hitting the radio waves and mix tapes including a remix to an unreleased Michael Jackson song, "No Friend of Mine (Gangsta)." There are 20 Tracks on this 73 minute album with special guest performances from Blac Tann, Phantasm, Everything Ends, Mattie Leon. For
