Liltingly sensuous guitar-driven adult alternative melodic pop rock. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Check out the compelling vocals and songs of artist, Diane Falcone. Falcone, who has recently signed a licensing agreement with Oprah Winfrey's Oxygen TV Network, has attained critical acclaim with her new CD, 'Release'. Her voice and songs have been described as having a vulnerability and longing that make you want to keep listening. Called "honest" and "liltingly sensuous" by reviewers, Falcone's intimate verses and enticing melodies call to mind the pop sensibilities of Aimee Mann, Sheryl Crow, with the sweetness of Sarah McLachlan. The Nashville Scene writes "Release, features emotionally direct lyrics rendered in a voice at once vulnerable and ethereal, bringing to mind a less detached Aimee Mann...uncluttered, atmospheric arrangements that compliment the impression suggested by her writing--of a woman mostly at peace, yet yearning for greater meaning."
