Basil Eliades writes like a painter and paints like a poet: this is form on a mission, words and performance strained to the limit of elasticity. 22 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: With Music, SPOKEN WORD: Poetry
Details: Basil Eliades is a rare polymath. He operates in many fields simultaneously, pushing boundaries and achieving excellence and recognition in education, philosophy, public art, his own painting practise, and, of course, poetry. Basil writes extraordinarily complex texts that reveal their beauty slowly. He is reverent of the form of words and their plasticity, and the energies they carry. He is also a dynamic performer, extracting everything from himself, the text, and the audience. To see him in action is to redefine ones understanding of the meaning of a word, and the parameters of poetry. He has lived, exhibited and performed extensively from Melbourne to London, and from Sydney to Stockholm. Also available by Basil Eliades: 3rd i.
