Plucky guitar playing and some abstract love song material 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk Details: One thing you should know before we get started... Gregory and the Hawk is not a group of Gregories and Hawks. It is the solo project of Brooklyn's Meredith Godreau, who one day felt like naming the songs for her brother. Meredith hails from very upstate New York; the daughter of a Bronx-born Spanish-speaking Puerto Rican daddy and a Dutch-speaking Rotterdam mum. She began playing acoustic guitar at the age of 14, drawing on her experience as a classically trained violin/viola player. The guitar is self-taught, played in the finger picking style, and used mostly to support her romantic poetry. A rotating cast of talented musician friends has accompanied Gregory and the Hawk on home recordings and shows around the North Eastern United States for the past ten years. Thus far, all her following has been gained through word of mouth and internet jabberwocky-mish-mosh, and her two releases have been all-pur-shipped-from-bedroom (Gregory and the Hawk, 2005 and The Boats and Birds EP, 2006). She is now making her debut full-length In Your Dreams available on Short Stories' infant indie label Pearly Gates!.
