10 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, ROCK: Aussie Rock Details:

Hailing from the green hills of Nimbin, Hannah Pearl is a talented girl-rock poet performing a vibrant blend of original songs and artful covers. With a lyrical edgyness and pulsing melodies, Hannah's sound is all her own. But for the sake of categorising, lets say its an Acoustic Pop Rock influenced by the likes of KT Tunstall, The Divinyls, and Fiona Apple. She has been touring the European circuit of festivals and concert halls for the last two summers, entrancing audiences and building up fan bases in Europe whilst promoting her debut cd, Hannah Pearl. She has played festivals in Austria (Pflasterspektakel 2006, 2007), Italy (La Ghironda 2007, Ferrara 2006, 2007, Santa Sofia 2007), Poland (Wroclaw 2006, 2007) Germany (Leipzig turbulence 2006), and Macedonia (Skopje 2007). Hannah has been writing songs and fronting bands for almost 10 years, beginning when she was just 17. Her first band, the all-girl Slippery became very popular in their local area, gigging constantly and winning a great many fans with their eclectic fusion of acoustic pop, rock and soul. The year 2000 saw them record their debut EP, win a place at Woodford Folk Festival and feature on the ABC's the 10:30 slot. In 2004 she lived and worked in Japan for a year as a professional Karaoke singer, and upon her return, recorded her debut solo album which has sold over 1000 copies and been described by one reviewer as; "a compelling blend of clever lyricism, sultry vocals and catchy pop hooks that will infiltrate your mind and find you humming in the shower"
