A very catchy and uplifting acoustic pop rock album with great hooks and tasty guitar. 8 MP3 Songs POP: Pop/Rock, ROCK: Acoustic Show all album songs: Freedom Songs Details: In an age of conspicuous consumption, celebrated mediocrity and bad attitudes, James S Rutherford is a breath of fresh air the genuine article. While listening to his first solo album Freedom, it became apparent he is comfortable in his own skin and confident of his many talents. He casts a spell with his easy grace; his subtlety is powerful and irresistible. Having the soul of an artist, forever seeking answers to undefined questions, and feeling compelled to create a work that is uniquely him, James has put together a collection of seven tracks that showcase his incredible versatility without ever feeling the need to show off. With a discipline, poise and maturity only capable of someone who has worked hard to develop his craft, his debut effort is an outstanding accomplishment. His sensual and pure vocals are well in sync with the instruments, and has pitch and enunciation that would make any vocal coach proud. From the hauntingly beautiful Winters in New York to the fun and addictive When it Comes to Love, it's evident of his desire to please the listener. His classical instrumental, Romance, is simply stunning and leaves you wanting more. In a work of art true to his timeless appeal and optimistic nature, he has gifted us with an album at once deep and transparent, catchy and elegant. A portrait of Jimmy/James.
