"An honest, direct album sustained by welcome touches of humor and unobtrusive production. An intriguing and rewarding listen." (Zeitgeist) 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, POP: Delicate Details: Linda Draper, a singer/songwriter from New York City, has gained a local following from playing in music venues such as the Sidewalk Cafe, CBGB's Gallery, and the Greenwich Village Bistro. She has performed in the summer and winter Antifolk Festivals and in the Yer Neighborhood Music and Arts Festival. Lach, who started the Antifolk music scene (antifolk.net) describes Ms. Draper as: "Witty, clever, and the voice of a church choir soloist...a cross between Suzanne Vega and Anne Sexton."
