Instantly hummable melodies; stories so familiar they must be lies. Loren crafts songs that combine living room intimacy with AM-radio pop accessibility. 13 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, COUNTRY: Americana Details: In the style of pop tunesmiths of the 60s and early 70s, songwriter Loren Deppings material plays like three-to-four-minute melodic stories. The songs, with catchy hooks, hummable melodies, and lyrics worth sitting down to read, are accessible to varied listeners. Presented as acoustic pop, country, rock and folk with electric guitar and additional instruments interjected their content runs the gamut: from trysts to trains; tattoos to tarmacs; love lost, love found, loving that cute dental hygienist. He has been proud to soak up as much Jimmy Webb, Marshall Crenshaw and George Harrison as two ears can hold. Beginning in the 1990s, Loren played in a variety of acoustic duos, trios, and bands up and down Oregon's Willamette Valley and coast. In the early 2000s, he relocated to Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he presented new material as an acoustic solo act. Upon returning to Oregon, he served a four-year tenure as songwriter and guitarist for the power-pop band, Partly Dave. (See Partly Daves Own Up for more information on the band.) Go By Train is Lorens fourth solo album. Back pressings of earlier albums are due in early 2008. The combination of his warm voice, simple and tasteful guitar technique, songwriting, and lyrical content is a welcome addition. --Crosswinds Weekly, Albuquerque, New Mexico
