Marcom's new album is a blend of new world beat, latin, african, middle-far-eastern, jazz, african and arabic rhythms combined with spirited, lovingly executed, enchanting, vocal stylings. River of Soul is a cinematographic universe filled with spirituality, exotic, esoteric, organic imagery, and a dreamlike intimate sensitivity, that is both introspective and universal. It's a musical tapestry that mesmerizes your ears, eyes, and soul. Marcom's voice surrounds and weaves itself around the listener like a caressing spirit. From the first clear vocal note of Dawns Spirit to the final majestic track Nostrie Tiempo, flows a river of possibilities. River of Soul is yours to discover! Marcom's Biography Marcom (pronounced Mar-ko-may) is a Canadian singer songwriter. Gifted with a pure voice, she blends lyrics with a unique wordless language that brings us in an atmospheric universe. Marcom carefully fuses different world music influences with jazz style and classical vocals creating a new world music genre. Marcom produces, arranges and engineers her musical work. She is a keyboardist, programmer and sound engineer as well as a proficient percussionist. After completing her post-graduate studies in commerce and communications, Marcom worked in theatre, in both music composition and sound creation. She then moved into the music industry. Her impressive professional experience and background as a quality sound and mastering engineer, has allowed her to collaborate with renowned artists and producers. This is the source of both her musical inspiration and artistic sense. Her industry collaborations include work with such artists as Diana Krall, Cecilia Bartoli, Le Cirque du Soleil, Branford Marsalis, Sir George Martin, Tom Waits, Daniel Lanois, Pat Metheny and Yes.

The making of Seven Seas: Marcom's debut album entitled Seven Seas, was released in Canada, USA, Europe, Asia and the Middle East in 1995 and received critical acclaim. All the lush sounds and vocals of the original release have been enhanced, Seven Seas Remastered is born; the magic of the sound is breath taking. Co-produced with Michel Robidoux (Frank Zappa), Seven Seas Remastered incorporates keyboards, fretless bass and traditional world beat instruments while layering her vocals over the pieces of music. Marc Langis (Celine Dion), on fretless bass, Michel Donato (Oscar Peterson, Toots Thieleman), on counterbass and Michel Dupire (Roch Voisine), on percussions enhance Marcom's ethereal voices.

The making of River of Soul: Marcom slowly began writing new compositions for what would eventually become River of Soul. The years that separate Seven Seas and River of Soul allowed the artist to mature and evolve both emotionally and spiritually. Marcom's strength lies in her ability to weave and create multicolored sounds with strong melodies. In this River Of Soul succeeds. It is a recording imbued with intimacy and laced with introspection. It was cinematically conceived; it's a feast for the eyes as well as the ears. Welcome to the River Of Soul, a voyage filled with spirituality, imagination, sensitivity and a surreal sense of being. River Of Soul was co-produced with Michel Robidoux (Leonard Cohen) who also adds his exquisite guitar playing to the mix and Martin Lord Ferguson (Cirque Du Soleil). Michel Dupire's (Sarah McLachlan), sophisticated percussions adds a distinctive touch and rhythm to the overall sound. River Of Soul is an album, which many people will discover a deep connection within. The first single music video entitled River of Life sets the tone and unleashes the magic within. Come and run in the river, let the waters rejoice in your life. Source: Marco Productions inc.
