Mexico's most beloved classical composer, Manuel Ponce wrote many of the Guitar's most beautiful pieces. Chapdelaine established himself as one of his finest interpreters with this CD. 11 MP3 Songs
CLASSICAL: Traditional, WORLD: Flamenco Details: "Unexpected pleasures are often the best. Although Chapdelaine was previously unknown to me, I have seldom heard a more superb album. Other young guitarists have excellent technique, but few have such style and musicality, and Chapdelaine's tone is the nearest to Segovia's that I can recall. It's rash, of course, to go overboard on the basis of a single album, but if I were marooned on a desert island with a limited selection of recordings, this one would be among my choices." --Paul Magnussen, Acoustic Guitar Magazine--
