If I missed anyone you know you helped me and I appreciate it. This was recorded during a very special time in my life that I will never forget and means so very much. The bright light will shine forever now. I hold this in my heart and will always remember the recipe of winto green berries and poplar bark tea. The pain is gone. I live now to learn to be still and listen to the wind. I stand facing the setting sun at Kishkadina Island I hear the voice of the great one and mother earth and all creatures bound together in one chord of joy! Buddhoboy
