Detroit Country. Country with a rock and blues edge. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, COUNTRY: Country Pop Details: REDHILL: A five-member Country music performance group from Detroit, REDHILL has developed a unique style they call "Detroit Country" -- Detroit-rock-and-Motown-influenced Country Music. Motown and Rock have been the prominent sounds coming out of Detroit for half a century, so it is no small wonder that these influences are in the heart and soul of the sound that is REDHILL today. REDHILL combines a group of seasoned music veterans, strong songwriters, and a sexy, soulful lead singer who all love to perform live. An energetic and upbeat live show has become the group's trademark. In 2005, REDHILL opened for Hot Apple Pie, Tony Phillips, as well as country great Clay Walker at the Freedom Hill Amphitheater in Detroit. They were nominated in 2006 for two Detroit Music Awards: Outstanding Country Group/Artist, and Outstanding Country Recording from their 4 song ep, also for sale on cd baby. They performed at this year's Detroit Downtown Hoedown; the largest outdoor country concert in the nation with acts such as Terri Clark, Josh Gracin, Miranda Lambert, and many many more. On June 25, 2006, REDHILL performed at the famous Bluebird Cafe in Tennessee to a packed room. On July 26, 2006 REDHILL opened for Mitch Ryder at the St. Clair Summerfest in Michigan. They will be opening for Clint Black and Dwight Yoakam at DTE in Clarkston, MI this coming fall. Their cd release party for this cd is at Memphis Smoke in Royal Oak, Michigan on August 20th at 8:00. Come on out!
