POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Punk Details: Calling Milwaukee its home, STaLL has been playing Midwest clubs, colleges and festivals since 1996. They were invited to showcase twice in 2001 for National Association of Campus Activities (NACA) conventions. In addition to regional airplay, STaLL has been heard on Los Angeles' KROQ and has had a song featured on MTV's Undressed series. All four members of STaLL stay fresh by engaging in side-projects, studio and production work and television projects. Influenced by the Replacements, R.E.M. and Guided by Voices, STaLL has been compared to the Goo Goo Dolls, Semisonic and Blink 182. Catchy choruses, sweet vocals, driving guitars, thumping bass lines, snappy drums, their live shows have been described as "rock 'n' roll epiphanies." A catalog of over 50 unreleased gems and poignant covers keep the fans coming back for more. STaLL currently has two CDs available for sale: "100 Years of Caring" and "Very Donna."
