If You've Always Wanted To Have Products Of Your Own That Won't Take Much Time And Money To Create...Now You Can!" As more and more people join the internet marketing world, they are always confronted by a glut of choices on how to make money. Now, this may seem like a good thing, but many people tend to lean towards the 'make money online' niches. Soon enough, they realize that not only is this niche overcrowded, there are tons of people selling products for others, and they follow suit. Affiliate marketing, as popular as it is, has tons of newbie marketers gasping for air amidst a swarm of overcrowded affiliates touting almost the same kind of products! So the novice marketer is faced with two important criteria if he wants to succeed: 1) Try to branch away from the make money online markets 2) Have a unique selling point to market! And guess what the best option would be? Having your own product. You see, if you have a product in a profitable niche, you've pretty much got a headstart over hordes of clueless, desperate newbie marketers still trying to figure out head or tail in the infancy stages of their online business. Having a solid product in a profitable niche will build your credibility as an expert in that niche fast, and you will also have loads of affiliates promoting your products for you. A good product also gives you more profits as compared to receiving small cuts of the huge juicy pie of sales as an affiliate. The main challenge that novice marketers face though is this: How exactly does one go about creating a product quickly and efficiently with little time, limited resources and probably, a zero dollar budget? It's not impossible, honestly . When I started out in affiliate marketing years back, my goal was to have my own product one day. those seasoned marketers laughed at me and told me how simple it was to create your own product from scratch and sell it for a tidy sum of money! Fast forward to the present day...and I already have tons of ebooks and software in my arsenal. Am I blowing my horn in showing you all these?
