Mark had a problem. He only had two months to live and he had to decide between going out with a "bang" or becoming an "angel". It didn't take him long to decide, it was really a "no brainer"... or would be. The Angel Program would strip his memories and personality and save them onto a "halo"; a storage device of magnificent proportions. He'd then be given what looked to him like a "flying bedpan" as a body. Sometimes you have to die in order to live...Author: Kuzminski, David, L.
