Working the night shift at the neighborhood 24/7, Carson Dudley has seen his share of weird - but never the kind that tries to kill you, drain all your blood and stuff your body in a dumpster. Something has moved into the neighborhood and is turning latenight snackers into latenight snacks, leaving a bloody trail of bodies through the quiet, peaceful seaside city of Las Calamas. With his trusty baseball bat and an unlikely collection of would-be battlers of the supernatural - a techie co-ed with a shady past, a trigger-happy rent-a-cop and an aging nun with anger management issues - it's up to Carson to uncover the evil that threatens his beloved mini-mart and put it down once and for all... before he becomes the next midnight snack! The first book in a decidedly different horror comedy series about a guy, his baseball bat and things that go bump in the night: Graveyard Shift, the Adventures of Carson Dudley. In an ordinary city... in an ordinary neighborhood... in an ordinary store... for an ordinary clerk... things are about to get freakin' nuts!
