The group signed with Zip Records in December of 2003, and their debut album has been released to rave reviews: "Annastasia can move from belting it out to shy schoolgirl in a heartbeat, and admirably covers all points in between... a pleasant mutually exclusive to No Doubt"---- NY Rock "AaVaA has it all... musicianship and control in their songwriting... very refreshing... Sway Reggae, Latin and a little Jazz... very unique... Anna's style of singing ranges from gutsy, to the sexy jazz style of Norah Jones... Virtually every song has the potential for radio play" ---- Breakthrough Connections "The main difference between Annastasia Victory and Gwen Stefani is that Victory can also belt it out as well as purr... this is radio worthy" ---- Collected Sounds "It's power pop-it's reggae... body-moving with thump thump drums, muscular guitars, rumbling bass... intellectual with creative arrangements, skillful performances, interesting lyrics... complex and highly structured... I love the vocals... a tight, proficient band"---- Jahworks "Amazing... Sade meets Rock and Reggae"---- Gene Simmons (Madd Maxx Entertainment) "An intriguing blend of Rock and Reggae... sophisticated, lyrically and musically"---- Dagwood Radio "Front woman Annastasia Victory delivers a distinctive other-worldwidely quality... exotic... an uncommon spark"---- Fufkin.com "Annastasia's vocals are smooth and sexy... experience a new worldwide in their unique diverse music mixture"---- Cool NY AaVaA invites anyone who hears the CD to return to this page and leave a review of the record, but please be honest, we need to know what you did and didn't like so we can continue to make the best records we can (for us and you).
