Sympathetic Resonance is created as the dominant tones emitted by Crystal Bowls resonate with the "calcium phosphate crystals in our bones, teeth and skull. This serves to tune the Chakras, directly impacting the mental, emotional and physical bodies. These Crystal Bowls are well known for stimulating the Alpha brainwaves which create a state of alert and focused relaxation. 2. Entrainment through the use of mesmerizing rhythms, has been used in many traditions as a means of transcending the limiting mind, allowing access to our higher nature. 3. Universal Language of the Heart", is how Anallia describes the inspired lyrics brought through in "Crystal Wings of Light". It is a language which bypasses the mind and transmits directly to the cells, activating and anchoring encodings lying dormant within. It is the language we all spoke as children, before learning the social language. It is specific to each , yet understood by all as it is from the Heart and understood by the Heart and Body.
