Brand new folk-rock Americana album from the 2007 Kerrville New Folk winner. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk-Rock, ROCK: Americana Show all album songs: Typical American Tragedy Songs Details: The more records I make and hear, the more I realize that I can't stand overly compressed and processed music. The people who are still making records the old way real, raw and with heart those are the ones I want to hear. And those are the ones I want to make. Fred Gillen Jr. and I went back into this one the same way we went into the last album I brought in tons and tons of crumpled up lyric sheets of songs I'd written in the past year, mostly in the past week, and we'd see what fits. I like recording songs when they are new, and about six of the 11 on this album were like that. No click track just me and my guitar, and whatever comes out. And then we added the sweet sounds of Abbie Gardner on dobro and lapsteel, Oliver Hill on fiddle, Andy LaDue on drums and Steve Kirkman on electric guitar, plus Fred and me on whatever we could get our hands on. I hope that people hear this album as part of my ongoing learning experience, about myself and about writing songs. "Typical American Tragedy" is a statement of where I was when I wrote and recorded these songs, and I'm proud of it as something people can take home and enjoy. Love, loss, fiddle girls, upstate girls, country music stars, soldiers, dancing, carnivals, mistakes got 'em all right here. -Anthony **For More, Go to- anthonydacosta- official website myspace.com/anthonydacosta - shows and music youtube.com/anthonydacosta - live videos **For Booking/Info, contact Dennis da Costa at ddc@portertubbor call 914.773.1612
