You may have enjoyed seeing this young man around Yorktown and Ossining playing his guitar for friends and fans at open mics and battle of the bands or at the pavilion in town. You may have seen him acting and dancing in shows at Yorktown Stage, the Westchester Broadway Theatre, Tarrytown Music Hall or singing with The Westchester Dreamcoats at Giant Stadium. Active in Yorktown Highs Drama Club, Choir and Dance Company, he has wowed audiences with stellar performances. And now, Anthony Melillo is making news in the local music scene, as well! Anthony is a 17-year-old acoustic artist, singer/songwriter and composer. He is often compared to an early John Mayer and Chris Carraba of Dashboard Confessional. Some of his other influences include Ray Charles, Cat Stevens, Eric Clapton, Jack Johnson, Kenny Vasoli and Mike Rowe. His passion for words come in beautifully vocalized love parables that take you on a musical journey with heartfelt rhythm and grace. Mixing it up with some fun, jazzy and upbeat songs, he continues to take you on a lyrical ride. Each of his transitions is quite unique and keep you listening for the next change. Both to the trained and untrained ear, he is a listening delight and a joy to the heart. Although new to the music scene, this charismatic teenager should rise fast as a family favorite, developing fans of multiple age ranges and genres of music. Wayne Warnecke, President of Segue Records says, "It is so rare now-a-days to find such a young artist with an enormous amount of talent and ability. He's bound to go far." Faithvision, a new network station in Connecticut, is currently covering a story on him and will be airing it in the next few months. Marcus Cheong, Producer of Angels-The Musical says, This music has a refreshing honesty and real emotion. Anthony writes from the heart and sings with great passion." Says Anton Evangelista, President of Comprehensive Films, "Every once in a while, a talent comes along and everything clicks - voice, lyrics, music, performed by a young man who makes it all look so easy. Be on the lookout for Anthony Melillo - a singer/songwriter who brings together all the elements of great original music, beyond his young years!" As a recent featured musician on the local cable television show "Alive with Clive - Turning Your Passion Into Profit," Anthony has made quite a stir with his appearance along with his brothers, Joe 21 and Nick 19, especially with one of his songs, "That's My Son," which can be viewed on YouTube. Clive Swersky, host of the show taped weekly live out of White Plains Cablevision, has recently inaugurated the Alive with Clive Top 20 Music Chart featuring local musicians who are competing for the top slot on a compilation cd designed to raise over a billion dollars for AIDS victims in South Africa. Anthony is currently enjoying a formidable lead on the Chart through the voting of fans at alivewithclive.tv and is hoping to have one of his songs make it to the Top 5 on the album. In a recent press release* Clive says, "I believe every son wants his parents to hear That's My Son, and I also believe it is destined to be a # 1 hit all over the world. Now, the question remains: Was Bon Jovi, Paul McCartney or Bruce Springsteen this good at seventeen?" Says Anthony, "My hope is to influence my peers through positive messages in my music, by telling stories using poignant lyrics and compelling melodies. My ultimate goal is to become a family favorite, bringing the generations together in a spirit of celebration of what we have in common. Maybe even help bridge the generation gap by reminding families that love, encouragement and respect from home is all we need to make it in the world." Anthony has recently produced his debut album "Just Gettin' Started" and has just released it on August 24, 2008. One of the songs featured on the album Kiss Me Sweetly is now on Z100s NEW! web channel radio and is moving up the charts every day.
