The first thing people say when they hear Bruce's music is, Man, can that guy play guitar. This is Bruce's second CD, filled to the brim with meaty instrumentals and clever, feel-good and heart-tugging songs, wrapped in his fresh Kansas perspective. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Bruce Huss Guitarist-Singer/Songwriter The first thing people say when they hear Bruce's music is: "Boy, can that guy play guitar." His two CDs are filled to the brim with meaty instrumentals and clever, feel-good and heart-tugging songs, wrapped in his fresh, Kansas perspective. When his song Acoustical Romance won a songwriting award at the Walnut Valley Festival in Winfield, it just seemed appropriate. You see, Bruce Huss is in love with guitars and songwriting. His live shows are hard to categorize. He comfortably slides from folk to pop-rock, from blues to new-age, and from a classical sounding piece, to almost country and back again. His first CD, View From the Top, and now his new CD, Patience, are all original and all impressive, especially for anyone who appreciates a good guitarist. Patience: Acoustic guitar master Bruce Huss returns stunning, imaginative and unique Got New Shoes hoots and hollers with speed and flare Joscelyns Wedding glides across the air with graceful accuracy and emotional intelligence. - Wichita City Paper When you listen to this CD, be ready to smile, tap your foot, and start thinking about how much music means to you. Absolutely stunning. Sitting Ovation is probably my favorite track on the CD. I didn't want this song to end. I knew he was good, but man, I wasn't prepared for what my ears heard. -KS Acoustic Arts Assoc. View From the Top: Talents such as Bruce Huss don't just fall from walnut trees ...the instrumental compositions here couldn't shine brighter or seep deeper into your soul in fact Mahogany and Scruffbucket will leave you as breathless on the fifteenth listen as on the first. - F5 Magazine With cover art taken from a Colorado Mt. Top, he must have picked up some lightning in his fingers on the way up. KS Acoustic Arts Assoc. His name will sound familiar to the locals. That's because he worked 13 years as an award winning news reporter/photographer at Wichita KSNW TV, where he crafted over a thousand feature stories in a special segment called Huss Company. I think writing a good news story is much like writing a good song, except the news had to be factual, and I can lie as much as I want to in a song, joked Bruce. You'll hear a good number of guitar instrumentals in his shows, and while many are original, he'll also throw in pieces by Tommy Emmanuel, Pat Kirtley, Stephen Bennett, Chet Atkins and Martin Taylor—sacred names in the acoustic guitar world. You won't see many performers who dare to tread in those waters. Dare to attend a performance by Bruce Huss, and you'll get smacked in the face with a variety of styles and a good time. myspace.com/brucehuss
