Ambient Guitar and waves of Electronica this rock alt sound. Carole Pope intense sexual often humorous lyrics make you "Think and dance at the same time 9 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ELECTRONIC: Techno Details: Transcend, Pope's latest weapon, is explosive, electronica that swaggers with rhythmic confidence while Pope's husky vocals both dare and deliver with the swelling abandon for which she's known. "World Of One" is dark and smoky, a visceral and sexy send off. "I won't play nice and make it easy/ In your world of one," Pope promises. In "Dream6" she blends the lure of desire with relentless, restless guitar riffs. "Americana" is a delicately hypnotic tour of landscapes and politics. "We ventured into some kind of unholy covenant/ With the government/ The rat pack, the leader, the freak, the conformist/ The screamer, Hey! That's me! Let's go down to Washington/ The mountains, the citadels, the place of detention/ The literal, the visceral, all our good intentions/ Get out of the car, run screaming." XTRA Magazine With three Juno Awards, a Genie Award, and four Gold and two Platinum records to her credit, Carole Pope is an icon of transgressive music. Throughout her career, Carole Pope has blazed a trail for the diva and anti-diva in all of us. In sharing her thoughts on AIDS, sexuality and sexual politics, her music makes you "Think and dance at the same time." She has written music for film and television, including The L Word, The Five Senses, and Queer As Folk. Pope's last single All Touch on Bugeyed Records garnered rave reviews and heavy rotation on Canadian radio and clubs in NYC and Europe ."

She is the author of a best selling autobiography entitled Anti Diva published by Random House. Carole has appeared in Wall to Wall Joni, a 12 hour tribute to Joni Mitchell at Symphonyspace in New York, with Laurie Anderson, Garland Jeffreys, Ute Lemper and more. A Dusty Springfield Breast Cancer Benefit at Joe's Pub NYC in April with Kate Pierson. Carole is currently touring in the US and Canada. Rough Trade reunited at this year's Toronto Jazz Festival June 26 and for Summerfest a three day FestivalFeaturing

Doors of the 21 Century, Journey, Boston. Praise for All Touch "This hot crossover release is pure dancefloor magic" -Randy Chow Wax of the Week, Eye Magazine Praise for Anti Diva: "Anti Diva is stacked with hundreds of similar caustic toss offs, thrown about with the kind of casual abandon you'd expect from a self-confessed and inveterate name-dropper...It's the kind of book you take in a single gulp, for fear of losing step with its breathless, pulp-noir pace..." -Greg Quill, Toronto Star "Pope's humour and sexual bravado have translated well onto paper. Anti Diva is a subtle but scathing attack of those who have drifted into complacency both on a cultural and personal level. It is both a challenge and an invitation, especially to women and cultural producers, to keep kicking at the pedestals." -Donna Lypchuck, National Post "Anti Diva is deeply enjoyable, nasty without apology, and unexpectedly deft...Pope is saucy and willing to say just about anything... 'Unrepentant' is the word that best applies...Refreshingly, Pope does not feel the need to apologize in any way for this behaviour, or to seek forgiveness. There is no closure, no reckoning, no teary epiphanies on mountaintops or Costa Rican yoga retreats." -Elizabeth Renzetti, Globe and Mail Carole Pope has produced what is probably the raunchiest, trashiest, funniest autobiography ever penned by a Canadian celebrity." -Paul Gessell, The Edmonton Journal
