It's a bear!!!! Weaving richly textured layers of sound, yet remaining undeniably sparse, Cedarwell's "Smoky Mountain Bear" is a meditative self-confrontation that is raw with mournful honesty and rife with expansive landscape imagery. It is their second full length cd and couldnt have come soon enough. Cedarwells Erik Neave well embodies his northern heritage. Sheboygan, Wisconsin, should be proud of such a wonderfully full beard, such tough flannel shirts and darkly twisted, acoustic-pop songs that seem to ride natures very rhythm. Crisp clarity and addicting genuineness hibernate Neaves voice somewhere in the back of your memory, somewhere where it can stay for a long, long time, constantly reminding you that this is Wisconsin, and winter never really ends.
