

Mp3 Charles Aarons - Don't Fret

DOWNLOAD HERE

The King Of Surf Jazz is back with his trusty Gretsch and a whole new collection of original songs. Hot Latin songs, funky blues, lots of twang and of course, surf jazz. 17 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Instrumental Pop, JAZZ: Contemporary Jazz Details: Charles Aarons is a Canadian guitarist/composer living in Mission, British Columbia. He has two successful solo instrumental CD's released on his own label Downtown Music, "Nothing Fancy Here" and his latest release "Don't Fret" as well as a series of popular spoken word CD's and other non-mainstream titles. Aarons started his career in 1972 in Toronto as a busy session player. Early on he discovered his writing talents and formed one of the very early Canadian recording acts, Aarons Ackley. Two albums were produced and released with North American distribution on Capitol Records. He had successful single releases with Where Did The Music Go and Lay Me Down. Aarons continued his career as a session player in Los Angeles from 1978 until 1989. During his stint in Tinsel Town, Aarons worked a busy schedule not only as a session player, but as a music supervisor for television and film, a jingle writer, and a composer for television and film. He also appeared in many television shows such as Dallas, Falcons Crest, Love Boat and Dynasty as well as appearances in films such as Against All Odds, Pee Wees Great Adventure, The Thornbirds and Byrd. Aarons currently resides in the mountain community of Mission, British Columbia with his wife Norine and their cat Ariel. The couple are the authors of the popular series of children's CD's "Being", the series of cooking CD's entitled "Cookin' Tunes" and a number of instructional yoga CD's on Kundalina Yoga by Norine. He continues to write, enjoy life and teach aikido.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color \(the Lamp Album\)