Details: For over 20 years, David Mosher has had the good fortune to perform, write, produce, record and teach music full time. Based in S.E. Michigan, he's stitched himself throughout the fabric of the state's musical community as a sideman for some of the states best known performers, including Kitty Donohoe, Matt Watroba, Michael King and many others, as well as a band member of The Raisinpickers, The String Doctors, and the go-to multi-instrumentalist for countless regional acts. He has toured internationally with Kate Mackenzie, John Rieschman, and Tammy Fassaert as well as recently accompanying folk icon Tom Paxton. He performs with Ann Arbor's Wild Swan Theater as their main musician and is also involved as music director of the newly formed Ramblin' River Road Show and part of the music team for the new musical "Swamp Opera".
