COUNTRY: Country Pop, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: The sign in his office says Lifes too short not to live it as a Texan. After a long journey that started in Michigan, took him to Europe and various other destinations in between, Dennis settled on the Texas gulf coast to call home. Ive been playing guitar and singing as long as I can remember, usually just for my own benefit and enjoyment. Every once in a while Id break out with a song or two at a talent show or a party and I found out that the guitar player singer guy quickly became pretty popular well Im not gonna lie, the attention has always been fun. The first concert I ever went to was an acoustic deal with Harry Chapin, Gordon Lightfoot, John Denver and James Taylor no band, just those guys backing each other up. When I started playing the guitar, that was the kind of stuff I was playing. When I got a little older I turned into a big time Parrot Head and wanted to be Jimmy Buffett. I did the cover band thing for a while, played in smaller groups and lots of solo stuff so thats sort of how things started and how I got to this point. For the last few years, Dennis has focused more on writing and has performed mostly for benefits and private events. With the release of this CD, he plans on a more frequent performance schedule. His first CD is appropriately titled, Barefoot on the Beach, somewhere he loves to be, and has a little something for everyone. Thirteen songs with a definite gulf coast flavor, Barefoot blends country, pop, and beach all together. I try not to get too serious when I write says Dennis, I mostly like music that makes you feel good. I dont want to spend a whole lot of time trying to figure out what somebody is trying to say. Good times, sad times, laughs, and love are all pretty straight forward. I think Barefoot is upbeat and positive. Thats the feeling I wanted for my first CD. There are a lot of different flavors as far as the music goes but the message is pretty feel good in all of them. I hope you find something there that you like.
