Details: Pianist and singer-songwriter, Diana Jane, embodies the powerful art and science of collaboration by capturing the beauty of melding instrument, voice, and lyrics to create a harmonic masterpiece of excellence and honesty. At the age of three, Diana began playing the piano by ear and began her classical training the following year. It was much later, however, that Diana found a distinctive vocal sound. Her musical influences range from Beethoven, Mozart, and Rachmaninoff to Stevie Ray Vaughan, Irving Berlin, and Dave Matthews Band. Diana balances her musical ability with a passion for literature and language. An avid writer, Diana's lyrics combine personal experience with inspiration from classic novelists and foreign poets.
