Debut Folk-Pop Album From TONY Nominated Euan Morton 10 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Acoustic Details: A native of Scotland, Euan Morton is a performer whose singular voice has been hailed by theatre and music critics alike. He came to the States from London to play the role of Boy George in the Broadway musical Taboo (a role that earned him a Tony nomination). Over the past two years, Euan has performed several sold-out concerts in New York City at Joe's Pub, The Zipper Theatre and Town Hall, as well as at The Signature Theatre in Arlington, VA. NewClear, Morton's debut solo recording, has been hailed as a stunning collection of soft pop and The New York Times says Euan Morton is sensational." Recorded in New York and Virginia and produced in conjunction with Lyric Partners, this album contains 10 tracks; some new songs as well as covers of some of Euan's favorite tunes. Highlights include a fantastic version of Leonard Cohen's Hallelujah and the soaring title track NewClear. A glorious star. A remarkable voice. - Liz Smith Morton is a major talent. - Kevin Manganaro, BROADWAY.COM Morton is superb. - Richard Zoglin, TIME MAGAZINE a sparkling star . - Raven Snook, TIME OUT NEW YORK Other CDs you will love Taboo Original Cast Recording, London and Broadway.
