Hear what people are saying about them... "The Harris Brothers are two of the most gifted and electrifying artists on the contemporary jazz and funk landscape. Whether it's in the studio or on stage they're worth their weight in gold and more importantly for us in the ENTERTAINMENT business...they are BANKABLE. We have them scheduled to appear on our show several times this season." Cameron Smith - President, Smooth Jazz Television "The Harris Bros Horns - First class musicians and a great attitude. They are an unbeatable combination." Alexander Zonjic - HeadsUp Recording Artist Smooth Jazz V98.7, Detroit. Morning Show Host. " What a thrill to watch the two Harris Brothers perform live and take such delight in each other's virtuosity. Magically, their delight becomes ours. Unforgettable musicians." Mary Kirk - The Wave 94.7, Hamilton, Ontario. " The Harris Brothers rate right at the top of not only quality musicians but as great entertainers as well. They are very respectful of their fans and you can tell they love playing * That's a musician. They are now being played heavily on WFRO." Mike Scott - Concert Promoter Host of The Mike Scott Jazz Show - WFRO, Eagle 99.1, Toledo. " I love the way Bill and Don both play individually, but when they play together there is a oneness of phrasing, intonation, and just overall musical synchronicity that I think may only happen when you have the same blood in you veins." Jeff Golub - GRP/Verve Recording Artist. " One of the most pleasant surprises of Warren Hill's Smooth Jazz Cruise was The Harris Brothers. In a supporting role they were great. As band leaders, incredible. I loved their CD...Funky, smokey and cool, an absolute aural delight." Richard Greer - Afternoon Drive Guy at 107.3, The Wave, Cleveland.
